

Instrument of authorisation for functions under the Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009 (NSW)

Sydney Living Museums

I, Adam Lindsay, Chief Executive Officer, being the principal officer of Sydney Living Museums (SLM) do authorise, under sections 7(5), 8(6) and 9(3) of the Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009 (NSW) ('the Act'), the exercise of the following functions of SLM:

1. the proactive release of government information under section 7 of the Act by an authorised release officer,
2. the informal release of government information under section 8 of the Act by a Right to Information Officer,
3. making a reviewable decision in connection with an access application under Part 4 of the Act by an authorised decision-maker,
4. perform an internal review in respect to reviewable decision under section 82 of the Act by an authorised reviewer.

In this instrument:

authorised reviewer, is a person employed from time to time as a Public Service senior executive and assigned to a role within the State Archives and Records Authority of New South Wales Staff Agency (SARA) under Part 2 of Schedule 1 of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 (NSW).

authorised decision-maker, is a person employed from time to time as the Head of Governance in SARA.

Right to Information Officer (RIO), is a person employed from time to time in SARA and is otherwise nominated as a RIO under SARA's Government Information (Public Access) (GIPA) Policy.

authorised release officer, means a person employed from time to time within the Public Service and assigned to a role that involves enabling SLM to exercise its functions, who is also employed:

- a) at a classification of Clerk 11/12 (or equivalent) or above, or
- b) is otherwise a RIO.

I also revoke any previous instrument authorising the functions that are described in this instrument.

The instrument comes into effect on 1 April 2022.
