

SOCIAL MEDIA COMMUNITY GUIDELINES

NSW STATE ARCHIVES – UPDATED DECEMBER 2020

On our social media channels members expect a place that is respectful, reliable, relevant and safe. We may edit or delete posts or comments that moderators consider to be:

- Abusive, offensive or unlawful - harassment or provoking other community members, swearing, derogatory language and expression of views that are racist, sexist, homophobic or sexually explicit are not acceptable. Defamatory comments or posts that violate laws regarding privacy will be removed.
- Political in nature – these platforms are forums to discuss the State Archives Collection and NSW State Archives initiatives, not political parties and personalities.
- An infringement of intellectual property rights - respect and acknowledge original creators when sharing content.
- Spam - we do not accept advertisements, requests to endorse commercial products or services or to solicit donations.
- Personal details – our social media channels are public pages and we will remove any comments including your private information or personal details such as email address or phone number. If we ask for any contact details, please provide this via direct message.
- A violation of the social media platform's terms and conditions.

If you breach these guidelines, we may block your account or posts.

To create meaning and valuable discussion please stay on topic when commenting on posts to the page.

If you would like to contact NSW State Archives, please visit:

<https://www.records.nsw.gov.au/contact-us>